

KATHY PFEIFER

Haiti:
FOOTPRINTS IN THE HEART

Kathy Pfeifer, a member of Zion, has recently published the
book:

"Haiti: Footprints in the Heart."

Kathy's life journey includes 31 years of teaching in Kalamazoo Public Schools. After retiring, she mentored and tutored for several years, volunteered at a soup kitchen, taught classes at Zion, participated in Stephen Ministry and in projects for Heifer International and Lutheran World Relief. She has twice been a volunteer worker at Hôpital Albert Schweitzer in Haiti. Always, she has been drawn to the poor. The One who became poor and was born in a manger inspires her journey.
